Civil Justice Expense and Delay Reduction Plan
Section 1:03 - Assignment to a Management Track

(a) The clerk of court will assign cases to tracks (a) through (d) based on the initial pleading.

(b) In all cases not appropriate for assignment by the clerk of court to tracks (a) through (d), the plaintiff shall submit to the clerk of court and serve with the complaint on all defendants a case management track designation form specifying that the plaintiff believes the case requires Standard Management or Special Management. In the event that a defendant does not agree with the plaintiff regarding said designation, that defendant shall, with its first appearance, submit to the clerk of court and serve on the plaintiff and all other parties, a case management track designation form specifying the track to which that defendant believes the case should be assigned.

(c) The court may, on its own initiative or upon the request of any party, change the track assignment of any case at any time.

(d) Nothing in this Plan is intended to abrogate or limit a judicial officer's authority in any case pending before that judicial officer, to direct pretrial and trial proceedings that are more stringent than those of the Plan and that are designed to accomplish cost and delay reduction.

(e) Nothing in this Plan is intended to supersede Local Civil Rules 40.1 and 72.1, or the procedure for random assignment of Habeas Corpus and Social Security cases referred to magistrate judges of the court.

SPECIAL MANAGEMENT CASE ASSIGNMENTS
(See §1.02 (e) Management Track Definitions of the Civil Justice Expense and Delay Reduction Plan)

Special Management cases will usually include that class of cases commonly referred to as "complex litigation" as that term has been used in the Manuals for Complex Litigation. The first manual was prepared in 1969 and the Manual for Complex Litigation Second, MCL 2d was prepared in 1985. This term is intended to include cases that present unusual problems and require extraordinary treatment. See §0.1 of the first manual. Cases may require special or intense management by the court due to one or more of the following factors: (1) large number of parties; (2) large number of claims or defenses; (3) complex factual issues; (4) large volume of evidence; (5) problems locating or preserving evidence; (6) extensive discovery; (7) exceptionally long time needed to prepare for disposition; (8) decision needed within an exceptionally short time; and (9) need to decide preliminary issues before final disposition. It may include two or more related cases. Complex litigation typically includes such cases as antitrust cases; cases involving a large number of parties or an unincorporated association of large membership; cases involving requests for injunctive relief affecting the operation of large business entities; patent cases; copyright and trademark cases; common disaster cases such as those arising from aircraft crashes or marine disasters; actions brought by individual stockholders; stockholder's derivative and stockholder's representative actions; class actions or potential class actions; and other civil (and criminal) cases involving unusual multiplicity or complexity of factual issues. See §0.22 of the first Manual for Complex Litigation and Manual for Complex Litigation Second, Chapter 33.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR ATTORNEYS COMPLETING CIVIL COVER SHEET FORM JS 44Authority For Civil Cover Sheet

The JS 44 civil cover sheet and the information contained herein neither replaces nor supplements the filings and service of pleading or other papers as required by law, except as provided by local rules of court. This form, approved by the Judicial Conference of the United States in September 1974, is required for the use of the Clerk of Court for the purpose of initiating the civil docket sheet. Consequently, a civil cover sheet is submitted to the Clerk of Court for each civil complaint filed. The attorney filing a case should complete the form as follows:

I. (a) Plaintiffs-Defendants. Enter names (last, first, middle initial) of plaintiff and defendant. If the plaintiff or defendant is a government agency, use only the full name or standard abbreviations. If the plaintiff or defendant is an official within a government agency, identify first the agency and then the official, giving both name and title.

(b) County of Residence. For each civil case filed, except U.S. plaintiff cases, enter the name of the county where the first listed plaintiff resides at the time of filing. In U.S. plaintiff cases, enter the name of the county in which the first listed defendant resides at the time of filing. (NOTE: In land condemnation cases, the county of residence of the "defendant" is the location of the tract of land involved.)

(c) Attorneys. Enter the firm name, address, telephone number, and attorney of record. If there are several attorneys, list them on an attachment, noting in this section "(see attachment)".

II. Jurisdiction. The basis of jurisdiction is set forth under Rule 8(a), F.R.C.P., which requires that jurisdictions be shown in pleadings. Place an "X" in one of the boxes. If there is more than one basis of jurisdiction, precedence is given in the order shown below.

United States plaintiff. (1) Jurisdiction based on 28 U.S.C. 1345 and 1348. Suits by agencies and officers of the United States are included here.

United States defendant. (2) When the plaintiff is suing the United States, its officers or agencies, place an "X" in this box.

Federal question. (3) This refers to suits under 28 U.S.C. 1331, where jurisdiction arises under the Constitution of the United States, an amendment to the Constitution, an act of Congress or a treaty of the United States. In cases where the U.S. is a party, the U.S. plaintiff or defendant code takes precedence, and box 1 or 2 should be marked.

Diversity of citizenship. (4) This refers to suits under 28 U.S.C. 1332, where parties are citizens of different states. When Box 4 is checked, the citizenship of the different parties must be checked. (See Section III below; federal question actions take precedence over diversity cases.)

III. Residence (citizenship) of Principal Parties. This section of the JS 44 is to be completed if diversity of citizenship was indicated above. Mark this section for each principal party.

IV. Nature of Suit. Place an "X" in the appropriate box. If the nature of suit cannot be determined, be sure the cause of action, in Section VI below, is sufficient to enable the deputy clerk or the statistical clerks in the Administrative Office to determine the nature of suit. If the cause fits more than one nature of suit, select the most definitive.

V. Origin. Place an "X" in one of the seven boxes.

Original Proceedings. (1) Cases which originate in the United States district courts.

Removed from State Court. (2) Proceedings initiated in state courts may be removed to the district courts under Title 28 U.S.C., Section 1441. When the petition for removal is granted, check this box.

Remanded from Appellate Court. (3) Check this box for cases remanded to the district court for further action. Use the date of remand as the filing date.

Reinstated or Reopened. (4) Check this box for cases reinstated or reopened in the district court. Use the reopening date as the filing date.

Transferred from Another District. (5) For cases transferred under Title 28 U.S.C. Section 1404(a). Do not use this for within district transfers or multidistrict litigation transfers.

Multidistrict Litigation. (6) Check this box when a multidistrict case is transferred into the district under authority of Title 28 U.S.C. Section 1407. When this box is checked, do not check (5) above.

Appeal to District Judge from Magistrate Judgment. (7) Check this box for an appeal from a magistrate judge's decision.

VI. Cause of Action. Report the civil statute directly related to the cause of action and give a brief description of the cause. Do not cite jurisdictional statutes unless diversity. Example: U.S. Civil Statute: 47 USC 553
Brief Description: Unauthorized reception of cable service

VII. Requested in Complaint. Class Action. Place an "X" in this box if you are filing a class action under Rule 23, F.R.Cv.P.

Demand. In this space enter the dollar amount (in thousands of dollars) being demanded or indicate other demand such as a preliminary injunction.

Jury Demand. Check the appropriate box to indicate whether or not a jury is being demanded.

VIII. Related Cases. This section of the JS 44 is used to reference related pending cases if any. If there are related pending cases, insert the docket numbers and the corresponding judge names for such cases.

Date and Attorney Signature. Date and sign the civil cover sheet.

VERIFIED COMPLAINT

Plaintiff, Westway Terminal Company, Inc., by its attorneys, Montgomery, McCracken, Walker & Rhoads, LLP, alleges upon information and belief as follows:

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

1. This Court has admiralty and maritime jurisdiction over this matter pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1333(1) and the Admiralty Extension Act, 46 U.S.C. § 3101. As described herein, the incident involved a vessel on navigable waters of the United States and affects maritime commerce.

2. Alternatively, subject matter jurisdiction exists by virtue of diversity of citizen ship, 28 U.S.C., § 1332.

3. At all material times herein, Zippora PTE LTD was the owner of the M/T Jo Kashi and has an office in Singapore, and a principal place of business in Kokstad Norway.

4. During the pendency of this action, the M/T Jo Kashi will be within this district and the jurisdiction of this Court.

5. Plaintiff is Delaware Corporation with an office and place of business at 2900 Allegheny Avenue, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. Its principal place of business is in New Orleans, Louisiana.

6. Defendant Jo Tankers AS is a foreign corporation organized and existing under the laws of the Kingdom of Norway, with an office and principal place of business in Kokstad, Norway.

7. The amount in controversy exceeds $75,000.00.

8. Defendants, Jo Tankers AS and Zippora PTE LTD are doing business within the district.

9. The events set forth in this complaint took place within this district and defendant is present within the district. See 28 U.S.C § 1391(b). Moreover, the in Personam defendants are alien businesses and as such subject to suit in "any district." 28 U.S.C. § 1391(d).

10. The matters set forth herein gives rise to an admiralty and maritime claim within the meaning of Rule 9(h) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure.

11. Westway brings this action in its own behalf and as representative of all those whose interests may appear.

FACTS

12. At all material times herein, pursuant to its business of owning and operating bulk storage and distribution terminals, Westway Terminal Company, Inc. ("Westway") was the tenant in possession and operating Pier H, Port Richmond in the Port of Philadelphia.

13. Pursuant to its written lease, Westway, as tenant, was to perform all maintenance and repairs necessary to keep the pier in good order and repair. At all material times prior to the events of April 9, 2008, described herein, the pier was in good order and repair as required under the lease.

14. On April 9, 2008, between 5:00 and 6:00 p.m. local time, the M/T Jo Kashi was attempting to dock at Pier H using her own propulsion and with the assistance of tugs under the control of defendants or their agents. During the docking maneuver, she collided with the pier, causing extensive damage.

15. Said collision was the result of negligence on the part of the Jo Kashi, her owners, operators and those for whom they are responsible.

16. Inasmuch as the M/T Jo Kashi collided with a fixed object, the Jo Kashi is presumed negligent as a matter of law.

17. In addition to the foregoing presumption, the Jo Kashi, her owners, managers, and those for whom they are responsible were negligent in the following respects:

- a. The two assisting tugs were not properly positioned;
- b. The vessel's approach to the berth was improper;
- c. The vessel approached the berth at too great a rate of speed;
- d. The navigators lost control of the vessel whose stern swung at a great rate of speed and struck the dock at least twice;

e. In other respects which will be shown at the trial of this matter.

18. As a result of defendants' negligence, Westway incurred losses and damages in the amount of $1,347,453.87, as nearly as can be estimated at present, representing the cost of repairs to the damaged facility required to restore the pier to its former good operating condition, no part of which has been paid, although duly demanded.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff Westway respectfully requests that

- (1) judgment be entered in its favor against the Defendant Jo Tankers in Personam and the M/T Jo Kashi, in Rem in the amount of $1,347,453.87, together with interest, costs and such other and further relief as the Court may find appropriate under the circumstances;
- (2) process in due form of law according to the practice of this Court in matters of admiralty and maritime claims may issue against the M/T Jo Kashi, her equipment and furnishings and that all persons claiming any interest therein may be required to appear and answer in oath all in singular the matters aforesaid; and
- (3) the M/T Jo Kashi may be condemned and sold to satisfy the judgment in favor of plaintiff herein.
